Adopted or fostered children

The children must be living permanently in the same household

Note 5

Distances are measured in a straight line using the GeoCode Points for each property and the GeoCode point for the school. The Local Authority uses a software package called Arcview GISto determine distance. Ordnance Survey supplies the coordinates that are used to plot an address within this system.

In a very small number of cases, where the school is oversubscribed, it may not be possible to decide between the applications of those pupils who are the final qualifiers for a place when applying the published admission criteria.

For example, this may occur when children in the same year group live at the same address, or if the distance between the home and the school is exactly the same, for example, blocks of flats. If there is no other way of separating the application according to the admissions criteria and to admit both, or all, of

SCHOOL ENTRY

Parents must, by law, ensure that their child is receiving suitable full time education from the beginning of o be of compulsory school age.

Where a place is offered in the school, the pupil will be entitled to take up that place, on a full-of the Principal.

If the request is refused, the original application for the normal age group class will progress through the Local Authority co-ordinated admissions scheme, be considered by the Local Governing Body and the parents advised of the outcome.

If the request is agreed and the year group for which the parents have requested a place is a current year group in the school, then the application will be considered by the Local Governing Body 3560 he parents advised of the outcome.a20 g10

If the request is agreed and the year group for which the parents have requested a place is for a future year group, ie Reception in September 2026, then the original application is withdrawn and the parents must submit a fresh application for Reception 2026 when applications open in the autumn term of 20260 Please note that parents only have the right to re-apply for a place. Where the Local Governing Body agrees to consider an application for Reception the following year, that application is considered alongside all other applications received and parents will be advised of the outcome of that application on national offer day. No place is reserved or held for the child in advance.

If parents are considering submitting an application for their child to be admitted into a class outside of their normal age group, it is strongly recommended that they also read the DFE guidance which can be found at:
